COMPLAINT TO DETERMINE DISCHARGEABILITY

LaChance Financial Services, Inc., Plaintiff herein, for its complaint against Gary Librandi, alleges as follows:

1. This is a core proceeding over which this court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §157(b).
2. This is an adversary proceeding to determine the dischargeability of a debt pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 523(a)(2)(A)
3. On November 16, 2015, the Debtors filed a voluntary petition under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code.
4. The Plaintiff, LaChance Financial Services d/b/a Banker's Capital ("LFS"), is a corporation with a usual place of business in Northborough, Massachusetts.
5. The Defendant, Gary Librandi ("Librandi") is an individual residing at 10 Lyons Road, Princeton, Massachusetts.

6. Librandi was the founder, officer, director and shareholder of a corporate entity known as Tropic Sun Tanning Salon, Inc. (“Tropic Sun”).

7. Tropic Sun was involuntarily dissolved by the Massachusetts Secretary of State on April 19, 2011.

8. Between February 25, 2011 and December 23, 2011, Librandi guaranteed performance by Tropic Sun of five (5) equipment leases with LFS.

9. In the case of each lease, Tropic Sun, by and through Librandi, retained the leased equipment without the permission of LFS.

10. According to Librandi’s Statement of Affairs, question 18, Tropic Sun ceased operations in 2012.

11. On November 5, 2013, after Tropic Sun was dissolved and ceased doing business, Librandi executed a promissory note in the amount of $25,000 payable to LFS. As security for this obligation, Librandi pledged all of the assets of Tropic Sun.

11. According to Librandi’s testimony at his section 341 meeting, once Tropic Sun closed he either sold, gave away or destroyed the leased and secured equipment without the permission of LFS.

12. Librandi did not remit the proceeds from the sale of any Tropic Sun equipment to LFS.

13. Librandi was the general partner of an entity known as 120 Stafford Street Limited Partnership (“120 Stafford”).

14. 120 Stafford owned commercial real estate at 120 Stafford Street in Worcester, Massachusetts which was sold in December of 2012.

15. Librandi guaranteed performance by 120 Stafford of four (4) equipment and fixture leases with LFS.

16. In the case of each lease, 120 Stafford, by and through Librandi, sold the leased equipment and fixtures and retained the proceeds without the permission of LFS.

17. Librandi's actions of converting equipment owned by LFS or securing an obligation to LFS constitute a willful and malicious injury to the property of LFS.

18. Librandi's obligations to LFS are not dischargeable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 523(a)(6).

WHEREFORE, LFS requests judgment that the obligations owed by the Librandi to LaChance Financial Services, d/b/a Banker's Capital are not dischargeable pursuant to 11 U.S.C. Section 523(a)(6) and for any further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
